Weekly Reflection: 18th Sunday in ordinary Time Year B – August 5, 2018

“I am the Bread of Life”

Where is the purpose of our life anchored? To help us answer the question we can begin by looking how we spend most of our time and energy? Are we searching intently on what will make us happy and secured? Or are we earnestly seeking those that will lead us to true holiness? Then we would see if we have anchored ourselves on God or on something else.

Jesus reminds us: “Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to everlasting life”. Jesus knows that we yearn for lasting happiness. But most of the time our quest ends in vain because we are searching in the wrong direction. And he offers us a clue where to begin - "to believe in the one the Father has sent." In Jesus, we have the love of the Father made incarnate for us. He has offered his life for us that we may have life to fullest. Indeed He is “the Bread of Life” for us that could bring true happiness.

But first we must consume this bread. Or should we say be consumed by this bread. For to partake of this Bread of Life is to be transformed to become one with Him – that is to be likewise a Bread Broken for others.

This is Jesus' prescription for our true happiness. Are we ready to be consumed by the Bread of life?

“Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.”
St Jerome
