21st Sunday in ordinary Time – 2019

“Lord, will only a few people be saved?”

If we can have instant chocolate cake, instant juices and coffees, why not instant salvation?

In today’s gospel reading (Lk. 13:22-30), Jesus was asked, “Lord, will only a few people be saved?” Jesus’ answer was clear, “Go in through the narrow door.” The narrowness is emphasized and because of it very few choose to walk through it. Jesus wants to make it clear that discipleship is not easy and that salvation is not cheap. Thus, it cannot be claimed just by mere affiliation, it must be lived with true faith and commitment.

But we must not lose heart, because there is no greater joy in the heart of the Lord than to have his children sit at the banquet He has prepared. We only have to clothe ourselves with His grace.

Thus, “Will only a few be saved?” is not the issue because God loves all of us and wills us to be saved. The issue is “Are we taking his invitation seriously?”

SECOND COLLETON: CATHOLIC CHARITIES HAWAII

Your donations to Catholic Charities Hawaii have made a difference to 275 families who lost property and belongings during the Kilauea eruptions, earthquakes and Hurricane Lane. CCH provided the following to disaster survivors: equipment for the disabled, rent or mortgage, security deposits, HELCO bills, water catchment cleaning and replacement, beds and frames, blankets, transportation, storage, tents and tools, cell/minutes and gift cards for groceries, gas, building materials, repair estimates, shoes, clothing, personal items, pet food, camping gear and emergency dental procedures and prescriptions. Car payments were made to help those sleeping in their cars at the disaster shelter. Survivors received help with filing FEMA Appeals and finding vendors to bid on property repairs. Your charitable donation to Catholic Charities Hawaii enables us to deliver a hand up- not a hand out -to those who need it most. When you give to the special Catholic Charities Sunday offering, you can be assured that every penny stays on Hawaii Island to help our local neighbors in need.

Please give generously.
