Weekly Reflection: "I will follow you wherever you go."

As we return to the ordinary Sundays of the Year, we are led to reflect on what it means to be a disciple in the ordinary everyday life that we are immersed in. While we might not face the lions or tortures of persecution, to be a follower of Christ is also not just a stroll in the park. There is a cost to discipleship.

And a disciple must be ready to embrace the consequence of his decision to follow Jesus as the Lord himself has experienced that "Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." And it must be a full and total commitment otherwise, "Whoever has put his hand to the plow, and looks back, is not fit for the Kingdom of God."

So what has it cost you to follow Christ? If it does not cost us anything, perhaps we are not really following in His footsteps...
