Pastor's Message

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Congratulations! St. Joseph Church 100th Year Dedication anniversary.

It is a great honor to be part of the history in this vibrant community of St. Joseph Church in Hilo. It has been one hundred years since the Dedication of the Church that stands as a landmark of the Catholic Heritage on the East side of the beautiful Island of Hawai'i.

On our part, we will continue the legacy of our ancestors who laid a strong foundation for our Church. We will strive to build our church as a Community of Disciples ready to face the challenges of the future amid economic and political storms, ethnic diversities and popular culture.

I would like to express my gratitude to all our parishioners, lay leaders and especially our rectory office staff, who have worked so hard from the beginning until today to share their time, talent and treasure with all of us. You are the instruments of God's loving presence in His Church. We will take pride in being a true Witness to Jesus to pass on the faith to the next generations.

God bless and Mahalo Nui Loa!

In Christ,

Fr. Wilbert A. Laroga, SSS
Pastor

Weekly Reflection: 3rd Sunday of lent – C – 2019

It may bear fruit in the future.

Many people still believe like the Jews of Jesus' time viewed tragic events as punishment from God for a wrongdoing committed. And Jesus would like to correct this way of thinking because God is a compassionate God who would readily provide a second chance for us to mend our ways.

But more than God's ways, it is man's preference of how justice is to be dispensed: that those who do wrong be punished and those who do good be rewarded. And we want it carried out on the spot. Any delay is not being just.

And that is where man is misguided. The justice of God might seem to be slow in coming but it is only because God will not readily give up on any of us. And will continuously reach out to us hopefully one day it will find a positive result. But let us not misunderstand – sin has its consequence and one will be held accountable for it, but God will not close the door till we make our final choice. But while God's love is unconditional and without limits, our human existence is limited. And hopefully we are not caught unprepared.

Let our Lenten journey help us recognized all these opportunities for conversion and enter into it.

What is Chrim Mass?

This Mass, which the bishop concelebrates with his college of presbyters and at which he consecrates the holy chrism and blesses the other oils, manifests the communion of the presbyters with their bishop. The Holy Chrism consecrated by the bishop is used to anoint the newly baptized, to seal the candidates for Confirmation, and to anoint the hands of presbyters and the heads of bishops at their ordination, as well as in the rites of anointing pertaining to the dedication of churches and altars. Chrism is a sign. By Baptism Christians are plunged into the paschal mystery of Christ; they die with him, are buried with him, and rise with him; they are sharers in his royal and prophetic priesthood. By Confirmation, Christians receive the spiritual anointing of the Spirit who is given to them. By the Oil of Catechumens, the effect of the baptismal exorcisms is extended. Before they go to the font of life to be reborn, the candidates for baptism are strengthened to renounce sin and the devil. By the use of the Oil of the Sick, to which Saint James is a witness, the sick receives a remedy for the illness of mind and body, so that they may have strength to bear suffering and to resist evil and obtain the forgiveness of sins. This Mass, therefore, is a clear expression of the unity of the priesthood and the sacrifice of Christ, which continue to be present in the Church. -Excerpts from the Ceremonial of Bishops and The Blessings of Oils and Chrism

COCONUT DHAL

Makes 4 servings

- 2 c red lentils
- 2 T fair trade olive oil
- 1 shallot, chopped
- 1 garlic clove, chopped
- 1 t cinnamon
- Small handful dried or two fresh curry leaves
- 1 green chili, chopped
- 1 t hot curry powder
- 1 t salt
- 1 can coconut milk
- 2 c water
- 1/3 c lemon juice
- Basmati rice
- Cilantro (optional)

Rinse lentils. Heat olive oil in large pan. Sauté shallot and garlic until brown. Add lentils, cinnamon, curry leaves, green chili, curry powder, salt, coconut milk and water. Bring to boil, then reduce to simmer and cook until lentils are soft, adding more water as needed. Season with lemon juice. Serve with basmati rice and top with cilantro.

Call to Family, Community and Participation

Catholic social teaching inspires and guides how we are to live and work in the world. In this principle, Call to Family, Community and Participation, we remember that human beings are social by nature—we need each other. We, like the early disciples, are called to come together and grow as a community—whether that community is in our classroom, workplace or family.

Encounter Dhathcroos family

The Dhathcroos family returned home, after fleeing violence in their country, to build a prosperous farm and become a vital contributor to their community.

How can you assist refugees in your community to rebuild their lives?
How can you support refugees worldwide who are fleeing violence in their country?
