28th Sunday in Ordinary Time – 2020

The feast is ready.

When hosting a feast or a banquet the two things that the every host is always worried with are: first will there be enough food for all those who will come and the second is will there be people coming to attend the banquet.

In this Sunday gospel, it is the case of the invited guest not attending. But host is just not ready to give up. He invites and continues to invite them. ‘The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come.’ And when those invited firmly refused, he quickly set his option B. This of course reflects the story of the relationship of God with the Jewish nation. When the chosen people refused His invitation, He then opened the invitation to anyone who wishes to come. It reveals to us that He can neither be controlled nor dictated to by anything in us, nor by any one of us. Generosity is His prerogative, not His obligation.

But the parable also would like to pause the question to us: How have we responded to his invitation? Are there more urgent matters that we need to attend to than being with the Lord? Hopefully the quarantine lockdown because of the Pandemic has given as the opportunity to reflect on the most important things in life.

HELP WANTED

The church cleaning ministry consists of four teams that rotate on a monthly basis. They are looking for any one who is interested in creating their own team to join the rotations.

- A team would consist of about 8 to 12 members who gather on a Saturday morning from 8:30 am to 9:30 am.
- Typical tasks involve vacuuming all carpeted areas, wiping with cleaning solutions all surfaced areas and using the anti-covid disinfecting solution when cleaning is complete.
- This is a great way for parishioners to gather in service and in prayer while preparing our church for weekend worship.

For more information please call the rectory office and leave your name and contact information for Mary Correa, Hospitality Pillar Chair.

REASONS TO REST ON SUNDAYS

In Exodus chapter 20 and the Catechism of the Catholic Church #2042.

It is important for us to have a creative outlet.

It's the space we need to commune with our Lord, both in the Holy Eucharist and also in restful prayer.

GOD COMMANDS IT 01

GOD RESTED TOO 02

YOU NEED IT 03

FAMILY AND FRIENDS 04

PRAYER TIME 05

THINGS YOU ENJOY 06

God rested on the seventh day after the creation of the world.

We are not God. Stress is hard on the body, and rest is essential.

Sundays offer a unique opportunity to spend time with those we love.
