19th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“This is enough, Lord!”

Just when we thought we have passed the crisis of the pandemic, the current state of resurgences of COVID 19 cases in the Islands and through out the world wants us to cry out in desperation: “Lord, please stop it. We cannot take it anymore.”

Our first reading this Sunday invites us to reflect on this cry of desperation by the Prophet Elijah, who is seen fleeing to escape from the death threats of the queen. What was supposed to be a moment of jubilation for defeating the false prophets has become a moment of great struggle and suffering. No different maybe from our own life long struggles in our desire to walk faithfully in the ways of the Lord. But just as the Lord made his loving presence felt by the prophet, so does the Lord continue to make His loving presence known to us in the most mysterious but also in the most ordinary event of our lives. Just as when he reveals himself to us in the Eucharist, the Sacrament of His Body and blood.

But we need to open our hearts and minds to His Presence. And this was the difficulty of the people in the gospel. They could not understand and accept when Our Lord said: “I am the bread that come down from heaven” because their hearts were closed due to over-familiarity. They no longer are surprised by God’s presence in their life. They have chosen to control when and how God will relate to them. How about us? Have we been too familiar with God that we also are no longer surprised by Him? As we received the “Bread of Life”, let Our Lord Jesus take hold of our hearts and once again be filled with His great love.

A Prayer for Educators, Parents, and Students

All Holy, Loving, and Compassionate God,
We thank you for your loving care of all creation and your protection and guidance over all. We come to you today, with all the faith and trust we can muster in this time of the pandemic. Please come to our aid.

We bring the administrators, principals, professors, teachers, school secretaries, the support staff, and the maintenance staff of our schools and universities before you. In their vocation as educators, they continue the teaching ministry of Christ. We pray for your blessings over their lives, their work, their livelihood, and their families. Guide them with your wisdom. May they be empowered by your Spirit to see the needs of their students and to inspire those under their care.

We bring our parents, guardians, and caregivers of our students before you. They are faced with unprecedented challenges. They have to make decisions that require your wisdom, understanding and insight. When they feel overwhelmed, be present in their lives. May they never feel alone or abandoned. Strengthen them from within, so that they might be a source of strength, confidence, and hope for their children.

Most of all, we bring before you our students who will either be educated online, at home, or in person in our schools. As they pursue their education in the midst of the pandemic, enlighten their minds. May they grow in grace and wisdom. In areas where there is a lack, provide them knowledge, understanding, counsel, and fortitude. Keep them safe from all illnesses and protect them from all harm.

We ask all these things, through the intercession of our Blessed Mother Mary, and through Christ our teacher.

Amen.

August 2 FEAST DAY ST. PETER JULIAN EYMARD

Peter Julian Eymard was born on February 4, 1811 in La Mure, France. He grew up in a poor family after the French Revolution, at a time when Catholicism was not looked upon kindly.

Before his First Holy Communion at the age of 12, the young boy wrote a small book of prayers. The prayer to be recited after Communion was written as follows:

*My dear Jesus,
I thank you for the grace
which you have given me that you have come to dwell in my heart.*

As time passed, he felt very drawn to Jesus through the Eucharist and decided that there needed to be priests who urged devotion to this. In 1856, Father Eymard founded the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament. The men who joined the congregation guarded the Blessed Sacrament 24 hours a day and soon attracted lay persons to do the same. This practice of prayer and devotion before the Blessed Sacrament became known as Eucharistic devotion.

The congregation struggled and was very poor. But Father Eymard did not give up. Despite continuing problems with his health, he even helped form the Sister Servants of the Blessed Sacrament with one of the women who came to him for direction, Marguerite Guillot. Along with the men and women of these congregations, he visited the poor and those in prison, and he tried to educate Catholics in the teachings of the faith.

Fr. Eymard died at the age of 57 in 1868
