Breathe into me, Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy.

Move in me, Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy.

Attract my heart, Holy Spirit, that I may love only what is holy.

Strengthen me, Holy Spirit, that I may defend all that is holy.

Protect me, Holy Spirit, that I may always be holy.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Before he ascended, Jesus had told his disciples to remain in Jerusalem until they received the promise of the Spirit (Acts 1:4). Thus it is that we find that Jesus' disciples, who were observant Jews, were all in one place together on Pentecost. This group includes not only the Apostles but also some women, and Mary, the mother of Jesus, and his brothers (Acts 1:14). We see the Church in its earliest form, consisting of those who were with Jesus during his public ministry who can serve as eyewitnesses. But with the aid of the Spirit their numbers begin to increase.

On Pentecost they were all filled with the Holy Spirit. They proceeded to speak in different languages, so that a large crowd from many nations, gathered in Jerusalem for the feast, heard them speaking in their own tongues. As God divided the nations at Babel, so now the Holy Spirit unites them so that they all might hear the Gospel the disciples are proclaiming. This leads to many in the crowd embracing the Good News of Jesus and being baptized. The nascent Church of Christ began to grow, and with the power, guidance, and protection of the Holy Spirit her mission of revealing to the world the Gospel of Christ spread to all nations. We here today are heirs to that Pentecostal moment, and to the life in the Spirit the early Christians proclaimed and passed on.

The Holy Spirit changed the world, and we are not so small that he cannot change us. For help against the desires of the flesh and the immorality, selfishness, jealousy, and outbursts of fury that arise from them, there is no better Advocate than the Spirit. As the Spirit sanctifies the Church, may he sanctify each one of us, and guide us in our lives of discipleship.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR VISIO DIVINA (SEEING DIVINE)

Visio divina is a form of divine seeing in which we prayerfully invite God to speak to our hearts as we look at an image. As you gaze at an image, you will be offered some questions for silent reflection, some of which may speak to you, while others you may choose to ignore. At the end of the visio divina, you will be invited to share a word or phrase to express your experience of the image.

As you gaze at the image, notice your breath and your body.

Simply be present to the image and allow it to speak to your heart, without any particular agenda. It might speak to you in words or wordlessly.

- How do you feel looking at the image?
- If you had to describe the image in a sentence or two silently to yourself, what would you say?
- If you were in the image, where would you place yourself ?
- Do you get a glimpse of the sacred from this image? Is God speaking to you in this image?

Does a name for God arise for you from this image? In silence, sit with what you have received.

- If you choose, share aloud a word or phrase to express your experience of the image.
