13th Sunday of Ordinary Time - 2022

“I will follow you wherever you go.”

What does it mean to be a disciple today?

This Sunday’s Gospel reminds us that discipleship is both a call and a decisive choice - a call because to be a disciple is to hear the invitation of a master to be his follower and a decisive choice because it will entail a radical life-conversion. We cannot be a disciple and remain unchanged. There will be a lot of letting go if only to let God take hold of our lives.

While today we might not face the lions or tortures of persecution, to be a follower of Christ is also not just a stroll in the park. There is a cost to discipleship.

A disciple must be ready to embrace the consequence of his decision to follow Jesus as the Lord himself has experienced that “the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.” And it must be a full and total commitment otherwise, “Whoever has put his hand to the plow, and looks back, is not fit for the Kingdom of God.” No one can be a disciple of Jesus while looking back at what is behind him and still move forward undistracted.

So what has it cost you to follow Christ? If it does not cost us anything, perhaps we have yet to take the first step to follow HIM.

Please remember St. Joseph Parish in your will!
