RE: Updated Covid-19 Liturgical Directives and Cold & Flu Guidelines

With the state of Hawaii loosening its COVID restriction policies, it seems timely that we do the same for the Diocese. After discussing this with the Presbyteral Council at its October meeting and with the approval of Bishop Larry Silva, all remaining Covid-19 liturgical restrictions are lifted except for the suspension of the distribution of the Precious Blood to the congregation. However, if you have individuals in your parish who have Celiac disease and can only receive Communion from the cup, a simple means of allowing them to receive from the cup should be planned. The use of a face mask is optional.

The cold and flu seasons are unpredictable in several ways. Although epidemics of the flu happen every year, the timing, severity, and length of the season vary from one year to another. At this time, it has been decided not to put any restrictions at Mass except for the temporary suspension of the distribution of the Precious Blood to the congregation. Local pastoral discretion and care should be practiced as necessary.

It is important to remind the faithful that the obligation to attend Sunday Mass does not apply to those who are ill, especially those who suffer from a contagious disease. It is a sign of charity and consideration for themselves and others that those with flu-like symptoms remain at home.

Ministers also become ill; therefore, to avoid celebrating Mass when ill, priests should consider alternatives that may be available to them in such circumstances. A short list of priests who could be called in case of need should be prepared at all parishes.

Within the parishes, common sense and maintaining good habits must be used:

- Check and fill hand-soap dispensers in all restrooms of the church. Have available hand sanitizer in your church vestibule.
- Maintain clean, fresh holy water and holy water fonts. While blessing oneself with holy water is a commendable practice to recall our Baptism, it is not necessary and can be omitted by those who do not feel comfortable sharing the font.
- Clean and sanitize places and things in the church that are touched frequently.

Below are a few resources which may be helpful, including:

- A suggested announcement for the beginning of Mass.
- Sample bulletin announcements, which you are free to revise in any way you find pastorally helpful.

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe is Sunday, November 20th. To celebrate the National Eucharistic Revival, the Blessed Sacrament will be carried in procession around the church grounds at 10:30 am on Sunday, November 20. Come join the procession as we lift our voices in praise of our Lord! Potluck luncheon to follow. All are invited!
